During their stay, delegates had the opportunity to immerse themselves in the authentic Tharu culture and traditions.

On 30th May, NTB organized engaging cultural activities and a jungle safari, offering close encounters with the rich flora and fauna that characterize Nepal's Terai region.

On the same day, Jungle Safari Lodge—owned by Mr. Suman Ghimire, Executive Committee Member of PATA Nepal Chapter—hosted a luncheon for all delegates.

The journey continued on 31st May as the group traveled to Pokhara. On the way, a luncheon was hosted at Marshyangdi River View Resort in Bandipur.

The program began with welcome remarks by Mr. Khem Lakai, Chairman of PATA Nepal Chapter, followed by special remarks from Mr. Ram Prasad Sapkota, Vice-Chairman of the Nepal Tourism Board.

Mr. Deepak Raj Joshi, CEO of the Nepal Tourism Board, delivered a thematic presentation reflecting on the essence of Mountains, Milestones, and Momentum. He highlighted the historical significance of Nepal's tourism rooted in the Himalayas, the major milestones achieved over the decades, and the forward-looking momentum the country is embracing to drive sustainable tourism development.

The presentation was followed by an engaging panel discussion on "Mountains, Milestones and Momentum" moderated by Ms. Sharanjit Leyl, former BBC World News Presenter and Producer.

The distinguished panel speakers included:

- Mr. Andrew Jones – PATA Life Member and Guardian, Sanctuary Resorts, Hong Kong
- Mr. Deepak Raj Joshi – CEO, Nepal Tourism Board
- Mr. Shahid Hamid – Chairman, PATA Bangladesh Chapter
- Ms. Nisha Adhikari – Actress, Filmmaker, and Everest Summiteer

The session offered deep insights into regional tourism trends, inspirational journeys, and collaborative strategies for sustainable growth in the sector. One of the well-articulated conclusions from the discussion was: “Don’t reduce the price; rather, increase the value”—a powerful message for navigating crises and ensuring long-term sustainability in the tourism business.

Following the first plenary session, Mr. Deepak Singh, Chairman of the PATA New England Chapter and President of Spiritual Journeys (Boston, USA), delivered a presentation on “Planning, Marketing, and Execution of Spiritual Tours,” sharing insights from his extensive experience operating tours across the Indian subcontinent.

Mr. Singh emphasized that spirituality helps individuals understand themselves and others, thereby connecting people from diverse backgrounds. This growing awareness is drawing increasing interest globally. Spiritual tourism has emerged as a significant niche, as more individuals seek travel experiences that offer personal reflection and transformation.

Nepal's deep-rooted spirituality is one of its strongest attractions, with visitors from around the world drawn to its rich traditions, sacred sites, Buddhist heritage, and the natural beauty of the Himalayas. The presentation outlined strategies for packaging spiritual tours and managing guest expectations effectively.

Key discussion points included:

- What Nepal offers from a Western perspective to individuals seeking spiritual enrichment
- Understanding what visitors are truly seeking—and how to deliver meaningful experiences
- How to select and present destinations aligned with spiritual themes
- Defining and managing guest expectations throughout the journey
- Integrating Nepal's natural beauty into the spiritual travel experience
- The roles and responsibilities of both Destination Management Companies (DMCs) and Foreign Tour Operators (FTOs) in ensuring quality and authenticity

After the coffee break, the conference reconvened with the second plenary session titled "Cross-Sector Synergies for Sustainable Tourism Growth," chaired by Mr. Ashok Chandra Pokharel, Managing Director of Himalayan Journeys and Shangrila Tours, Nepal.

The session brought together a diverse panel of experts representing key sectors influencing tourism:

- Mr. Sudarshan Chapagain – Vice President, The Soaltee Hotels & Resorts
- Ms. Aayusha Parsain – CEO, Community Homestay Network (CHN)

The panel shared valuable insights on the importance of collaboration between financial services, healthcare, hospitality, and community-based tourism enterprises. Discussions emphasized how cross-sector partnerships can drive innovation, enhance visitor experience, support local communities, and ensure the long-term sustainability of the tourism industry.

This session highlighted the need for integrated strategies that align economic, environmental, and social goals to build a more resilient and inclusive tourism ecosystem.

The conference continued with another engaging plenary session titled “Beyond the Himalayas: The New Face of Luxury in Nepal,” moderated by Mr. Upaul Majumdar, Head of Practice – Tourism for South Asia at Dolma Consulting, UK.

The panel explored emerging trends and opportunities in Nepal’s evolving luxury travel segment. Discussions focused on redefining luxury beyond traditional five-star offerings by emphasizing exclusivity, authenticity, experiential travel, and personalized services. Panelists shared insights on how Nepal can position itself as a high-value destination by leveraging its natural beauty, cultural richness, and premium hospitality offerings.

Following the refreshment break after the plenary session, Mr. Milan Tamang, Chairperson of the Jugal Rural Municipality Tourism Committee, delivered a brief yet captivating presentation on “Destination JUGAL.”

He introduced Jugal as an emerging tourism destination offering exceptional opportunities for mountaineering, trekking, and immersive cultural experiences amidst the breathtaking natural beauty of the Himalayas. Located just 140 kilometers northeast of Kathmandu, Jugal boasts the closest Himalayan peaks to Nepal’s capital, making it an accessible yet off-the-beaten-path adventure for both domestic and international travelers.

His presentation highlighted the untapped potential of the region and the community’s efforts to develop sustainable tourism in harmony with local culture and nature.

Dr. Ghana Shyam Gurung, Country Director of WWF Nepal, delivered an insightful presentation titled “Conservation Efforts – Where Nepal Stands? What Next?”

In his address, Dr. Gurung outlined Nepal’s key achievements in biodiversity conservation, including successful community-based approaches, anti-poaching efforts, and habitat preservation initiatives.

He highlighted the country’s global recognition as a conservation leader, while also addressing the pressing challenges that lie ahead—such as climate change, human-wildlife conflict, and the need for stronger cross-sector collaboration. His presentation called for renewed commitment, innovative strategies, and inclusive policies to sustain and advance Nepal’s conservation successes into the future.

Towards the end of the conference, Mr. Ajeet Bajaj, President of the Adventure Tour Operators Association of India (ATOAI) and Vice Chairman of the Federation of Associations of Indian Tourism & Hospitality (FAITH), delivered special remarks emphasizing the immense potential of enhanced collaboration between Nepal and India.

DELEGATES FEEDBACK

Namaste, I am Santosh Giri from Hotel Jungle Crown, Sauraha. I have visited the Himalayan Travel Mart before, but this is my first time participating with a stall. From my experience, the number of buyers this year is greater than in previous years, and I was surprised to see such a large number of seller stalls. It's clear that the event is growing each year, and I believe the space at The Soaltee Hotel may not be sufficient for next year.

The buyers invited by PATA are genuinely interested and positive. In most marts, discussions tend to be one-sided, but here, the interactions were two-way and engaging. Based on my conversations, I believe there is potential to do business with 90% of the buyers I met.

I am very hopeful and truly thankful to PATA for organizing this event. Such events are essential for boosting Nepal's tourism industry and should continue to take place in the country. Thank you!

Mr. Santosh Giri

CEO- Hotel Jungle Crown
(Exhibitor | Nepal)

Dear PATA & Nepal Tourism Board teams,
Thank you all for such an interesting and enjoyable event, from FAM, to conference to travel mart. I had very useful and informative meetings with the various suppliers with plans to incorporate new properties and experiences for our clients. I enjoyed the conference and the various talks as well as wonderful dancing. It's my first time to attend HTM and was an overall great experience and a pleasure to meet your teams, the sellers and international buyers. Thank you!

It's always a pleasure to visit Nepal and we look forward to sending more guests to your beautiful country and region. Best wishes and thanks"

Ms. Maggie Mary Maguire

Owner- One Himalaya
(Buyer | Uk)

"This is my first time experience here in Nepal and I knew about EBC (Everest Base Camp). I came here and I noticed that there are many things beyond EBC, there are more things. There are beautiful resorts and hotels, wildlife, nature, lakes, trekking. These are all things that I believe is new for me and I should convey my gratitude to PATA Nepal Chapter and Ministry of Tourism and all the associated organizations who has arranged this event. It was fantastic and really an eye opening event. With heartfelt gratitude, I extend my deepest thanks to Team PATA Nepal and the Nepal Tourism Board for orchestrating the remarkable Himalayan Travel Mart 2025. This extraordinary event united travel industry professionals from over 30 countries, fostering connections, exploration, and unforgettable memories in Nepal's breathtaking landscapes. The eye-opening Fam Tour was a highlight, showcasing Nepal's unparalleled beauty. As we part ways with heavy hearts, I look forward to reuniting at HTM 2026. Let's stay connected, collaborate, and grow together, continuing to promote sustainable tourism. Thank you for an inspiring experience!"

This is my first time ever in Nepal, I have never been here before and it has been a pretty good experience so far. It is so different from what I have seen in Europe and it is amazing. I may visit again maybe in the future.

The Himalayan Travel Mart is a really good experience. I have met many interesting and nice people from all over the world and I got to experience the taste of the whole world in this mart. This experience is quite new to me and I am very surprised.

Ms. Dominika Liwska

Fantastic event and, an excellent platform, we have been health partners for the Himalayan Travel Mart since 2018. The synergy between all the sectors that come together in this event is something very unique. The public-private partnership is also something that is being shown excellently in this event and we are really happy to be part of this event.

Mr. Utsav Khatri

During the first week of June, I had the opportunity to attend the 5th edition of Nepal's premier international travel and trade show — HTM 2025. It was an insightful experience.

PATA still stands out with its creativity and seems to be doing better than other national associations. While we @responsibletreks didn't take a stall this year, I believe the event was impactful.

These kinds of platforms are essential for boosting Nepal's tourism and building meaningful industry connections.

Mr. Chhewang Lama

Thank you for an extraordinary eight days with you. You provided a lovely and efficient gathering for us to get to know Nepal and to meet suppliers from Nepal. And we had so much fun.

All your planning, hard work and coordination with 100+ of us foreign tour operators and the Nepalese tour industry paid off handsomely.

Thank you again, and looking forward to coming back – many times.

Mr. Deepak Singh

HTM 2025 – Speaker & Buyer

This experience with you all has been really nice. From the first day, I got to interact little well because for the panel members, there were really esteemed panel members which we got to see and it's been our honor to be able to see these people in real life and actually see the conversation of International Tourism Global leaders and industry experts. And another thing is that interacting with them in the panel was a really good opportunity. I feel like it voiced my thoughts and opinions. Besides that, I'd say the networking opportunity whether it is from the tea or coffee sessions or for lunch and dinner sessions. It was really nice and all-inclusive. I think we got to experience a bit of everything.

And in terms of how the mark was set up, I really like how everyone got to showcase their hotels and meet with other buyers, which would be both international and domestic. So happy everyone is under a single roof, was a really big opportunity. And another thing I really liked is the appointment setup that was allowed, so some people were allowed to request. Then those who were not able to accept a request were still assigned. It was really nice. We get to meet new people, people that we wanted to meet and people that we didn't know we wanted to meet. But once we met it was a great opportunity.

Mr. Dorjee Gurung

Director – Hotel Thrive
(Exhibitor | Nepal)

This year's HTM concluded with a higher degree of success. I was not there for the second day, ought not to be, as I am not in the business so can't share experiences for that day. But the first day events were massive and just excellent. The stage setting itself was a big attraction. I can see the amount of dedication and hard work that has gone into it by everyone concerned to make it a grand success.

The whole concept of celebrating the 50th Anniversary, a mesmerizing inauguration by showcasing a massive Newari Dhime by Nasa Haima Bajan Khala (Nepali Girls including a 10 year old) and representation of all seven province's cultural dances - what an adorable idea?.

Karna spoke from his heart demonstrating his true love for Tourism and Conservation. Minister talked so nicely. And, Bibhu, meaningful as always, a short but rendering VoT not only to the participants but to you - the true champions for this event. He loves PATA-N and the team.

Altogether, it was a great day since the morning to listen to the esteemed speakers focussed on the theme followed by inauguration events and to conclude with delicious dinner. Thank you, PATA Nepal Chapter and your co organizers, NTB and other sponsors.

I must say a big congratulations to the team lead by Khem-ji (a good speaker that I love to listen to always), his executive committee team and the Event Committee.

Special congratulations to the Secretariat team who must have worked 24/7 to organize this HTM programme. A big thank you to the most dedicated Suresh - the Lifeline of PATA-N to me. You always think big and get it materialized.

Congratulations to your hard work, which was clearly visible that day, to Saloni, Manita, Rupesh, Akriti, Sabina and Saraswati.

Anish, you are always cheerful to speak that I cannot define. Superb. You should buy insurance for your voice.

Dikshya, during inauguration as the MC and small intervention to hold the mic and introduce farewell to Nandini by Shradha, (representing the entire team of NTB), were all memorable.

On the whole, it was a great event. Congratulations and thank you:-"

SPOTLIGHT ON THE ROLE OF YTPS PATA NEPAL STUDENT CHAPTER

With more than thousand students connected through the PATA Nepal Student Chapter Network throughout more than 15 different education member colleges in Nepal that specialize in tourism and hospitality, the PATA Nepal Student Chapter has proven to be a solid and successful wing of the PATA Nepal Chapter.

The PATA Nepal Chapter seeks to give students (Young Tourism Professionals, or YTPs) as many learning and career-building opportunities, training platforms, and essential guidance as possible so they can improve their knowledge, skills, and comprehension of the current issues and trends in the industry outside of their usual academic program.

PATA Nepal Chapter engaged more than 20 YTPs in volunteer work at the Himalayan Travel Mart (HTM, 2025). These roles allowed them to assist foreign delegates, expand their networks, engage in real interactions, and gain practical experience, inspiring them for their future endeavours.

The students were assigned to various teams, each with different roles and responsibilities, including:

CONCLUSION

The 5th edition of the Himalayan Travel Mart (HTM 2025), held from June 3rd to 5th at The Soaltee Kathmandu, concluded with remarkable success, drawing over 700 delegates from 30 countries, including 100+ international participants and a strong national presence. Under the theme “Mountains, Milestones, and Momentum,” the event set new benchmarks for international tourism collaboration and sustainable growth. With vibrant participation from global buyers, sellers, media, and industry leaders, HTM 2025 reinforced its reputation as the Himalayan region’s leading travel trade platform and further elevated Nepal’s positioning as the Gateway to the Himalayas.

The pre-mart FAM trips and destination experience tours offered international delegates—including buyers, guests, and media representatives—firsthand exposure to Nepal’s alluring tourism products and services, complemented by authentic hospitality and truly memorable, once-in-a-lifetime experiences.

The HTM 2025 Conference brought together global and local tourism thought leaders and tourism stakeholders for impactful dialogue, knowledge exchange, and strategic collaboration. Key outcomes include:

1) Strategic Vision for Sustainable Tourism:

- Thematic presentations and discussions emphasized leveraging Nepal’s Himalayan identity, historical milestones, and forward momentum for sustainable tourism development.
- A guiding message emerged: “Don’t reduce the price; increase the value,” promoting quality-driven tourism.

2) Promotion of Spiritual and Experiential Tourism:

- Focused insights on marketing and executing spiritual tours positioned Nepal's deep-rooted spirituality as a major tourism strength.
- Emphasis was placed on packaging meaningful, transformative travel experiences.

3) Cross-Sector Collaboration for Sustainability:

- Experts from finance, healthcare, hospitality, and community tourism advocated integrated approaches to enhance visitor experience, support local communities, and drive innovation.

4) Cultural Intelligence and Travel Assistance:

- Sessions highlighted the importance of cultural adaptability and global best practices in travel assistance for adventure tourism to improve service quality and guest safety.

5) Tourism for Conservation and Biodiversity:

- Presentations reinforced tourism's role in conservation, particularly in protecting Nepal's biodiversity through community engagement and responsible practices.

6) Reimagining Nepal's Luxury Segment:

- Panel discussions redefined luxury beyond traditional offerings, promoting authenticity, exclusivity, and personalized experiences to attract high-value travelers.

7) New Destination Spotlight – Jugal Region:

- The conference introduced Destination Jugal as a promising tourism hub close to Kathmandu, blending Himalayan adventure with cultural immersion.

8) European Market Alignment:

- Insights from European experts guided Nepal's tourism industry to adapt offerings to meet sustainability, quality, and authenticity expectations of European travelers.

9) Conservation Progress and Future Challenges:

- WWF Nepal's presentation underscored Nepal's leadership in biodiversity conservation while calling for stronger collaboration to address future environmental challenges.

10) Regional Cooperation and India-Nepal Synergy:

- The conference concluded with a call for deeper India-Nepal tourism collaboration to promote shared growth and sustainable development in the region.

The two-day B2B Mart (Business Sessions) brought together 60 global buyer organizations from 21 source market countries and 78 seller organizations from six destination countries, facilitating over 2,100 pre-matched business appointments and valuable networking opportunities.

A series of social events (networking Luncheons and Dinners) hosted by industry partners—including Banbas, Landmark Hotels & Resorts, Bagaicha Adventure Resort, Jungle Safari Lodge, Hotel Jungle Crown, Royal Tiger Luxury Resort (Chitwan), Majestic Lake Front Hotel & Suites, Hotel Sarovar (Pokhara), and Holiday Inn Resort Kathmandu Budhanilkantha—provided meaningful networking opportunities in a warm and culturally immersive Nepali ambience.

HTM 2025 concluded with a Grand Closing Ceremony at Lord of the Drinks (LOD), Kathmandu, where international delegates and Nepali tourism professionals came together for a celebratory evening filled with music, dance, and friendship. The evening was a vibrant showcase of Nepal's warm hospitality and its readiness to welcome the world in all seasons and for all reasons.

HTM once again exemplified a successful public-private partnership, marked by enthusiastic participation and support from public- and private-sector authorities and organizations at both national and international levels. Notably, over 70% of the event budget was generated through active participation, partnerships, and generous sponsorship contributions from private-sector tourism businesses and stakeholders. This underscores the private sector's strong commitment and determination to promote, develop, and expand the country's tourism industry.

HTM 2025 successfully highlighted emerging destinations such as Api Rural Municipality in Karnali Province and Jugal Rural Municipality in Bagmati Province, showcasing their unique tourism potential and opportunities for sustainable development. In addition, the event featured traditional Nepali arts and culture, reinforcing a collective commitment to cultural pride and heritage preservation. These efforts contributed to expanding Nepal's tourism appeal beyond well-known destinations, fostering inclusive growth and supporting long-term cultural sustainability.

Overall, HTM 2025 served as a dynamic platform for sharing ideas, building networks, expanding business opportunities, celebrating achievements, and reinforcing a collective commitment to a more sustainable, inclusive, and value-driven future for Nepal's tourism industry.

With overwhelming appreciation from all corners, HTM 2025 has reaffirmed Nepal's position as a resilient, innovative, and collaborative tourism hub at the heart of the Himalayas. As the industry looks ahead, the spirit of Mountains, Milestones, and Momentum will continue to inspire and drive Nepal's tourism forward.
